- 2.2.1 Analyse the impact of crime and violence on society. (10)
- 2.2.2 With reference to any TWO religions you have studied, briefly discuss their teachings that address the issue of crime and violence. (12)
- [50]

QUESTION 3

Read the extract below and answer the questions that follow.

Each religious tradition has a beginning, a source, which is normative. Source does not refer to this origin, or beginning, only. It also suggests how people return to this norm over and over again to find the answers they are looking for. Normative sources include inspiration and sacred books.

[Source: Religion Studies Grade 12, Steyn et al.]

- 3.1 3.1.1 What is the role of inspiration in religion? (14)
- 3.1.2 Discuss the origin and development of the sacred book(s) of any ONE religion you have studied. (20)
- 3.2 Compare the teachings of any ONE secular worldview with the teachings of any ONE religion you have studied. (16)
- [50]

QUESTION 4

Read the statement below and answer the questions that follow.

The record of religions, like everything that involves humans, is mixed. Sometimes religions inspire us to reach great heights of creativity and social sacrifice. At other times religions drive people to shameful behaviour. Sometimes religion is part of the problem; sometimes it is part of the solution.
