FUNERAL OF A STRUGGLE HERO

Professor Jonathan Jansen, Vice-Chancellor of the Free State University, hit the nail on the head with a beautifully written message on Facebook this week. The message pays tribute to Ahmed Kathrada, the struggle hero who passed away this week. Jansen reminds us all of just how unique and amazing South Africa is.

He wrote: 'Show me another country where the Anglican Archbishop prays at a Muslim funeral; where a white man chairs the proceedings to remember a leader from a black liberation movement; where a sitting president of a developing country is told to step down in a letter from the deceased stalwart of his own party; where the widow of the black man being buried is a white woman who gave her life to the struggle for freedom; and where Christian, Muslim, Jewish, Hindu and other faiths come together in a broad swathe of South African humanity to remember a man who fought for all of us. Where on and off the stage no one racial or ethnic or religious group dominated the event.'

'For a moment, just a moment, it felt good to hope again ... '
