The second term ended well. It was a very good term for Lama. He got a very good school report. He was also given a T-shirt with an HIV-AIDS message, for reciting the best poem. Lama was eager to show these presents to aunt Ndama.

During the holidays, Lama visited his aunt. He wore the T-shirt which had been given to him. Many people in the village read the writing on his T-shirt as he passed by. It read "KEEP SAFE FROM AIDS." When he reached there, his aunt and uncle were sick. They had diarrhoea, cough, high temperature and had lost weight. So he took them to hospital.

51 B THE EXCITING HOLIDAY

Last holiday was so exciting because I visited my aunt in Bukalasa village. I was very happy to see her. My aunt has three children and all of them were at home that holiday. We used to go to the garden every morning and by mid-day; we could be through with our work. This was possible because we were many doing a small piece of work. Collecting food for lunch and supper was the most interesting activity because this is when we used to eat a lot of fruits like sugarcanes; jackfruits, pawpaws and so on.

Afterwards, we could go back home and do house work as we prepared for lunch. Play could follow for the rest of the day. I really enjoyed my stay there.

Questions:

(a) What is the title of the passage?

(b) Where did the writer go last holiday?

(c) How many children does the writer's aunt have?
