SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

One day an old man decided to go and visit his daughter who lived in Kampala city. The old man locked up his house well since he was living alone. His wife had been buried ten years earlier and made up his mind to stay single. He had also managed to educate all his children. His grandchildren visited him every holiday.

When he reached Kampala, he was approached by a young man who volunteered to carry his luggage to any destination. The old man accepted the offer and handed over the bag together with the cock which he had carried along, to the young man.

The young man decided to move faster than the old man and finally disappeared with the luggage. A senior Policeman however, was watching what was taking place and he followed the cunning boy without delay. The young man was arrested and taken to police and the old man got back his luggage.

When he rang his daughter to direct him to their home, the daughter instead came for him from town. The old man was however made very happy when it turned out that the senior policeman was his son-in-law.
