Conditional sentences are divided into three; conditional clause 1 (if 1) conditional clause 2 (if 2), conditional clause 3 (if 3)

Conditional clause I expresses that something is going to happen or chances for it to happen are high if a certain condition is fulfilled Examples

2. Mother will punish us if we don't complete the work

3. If Juma comes, we shall go together

The condition to be fulfilled is contained in the if clause and the action to take place is in the main clause

Examples

1. if he comes, tell him I have gone to town

When an if clause comes first put a comma after it and before the main clause

At times the word 'when' is used instead of 'if' once we are sure that the condition will be fulfilled Example

Conditional clause 2 (if clause 2)

This clause is used to express a condition which is impossible and whose result we are only imagining.

Unlike in if 1 where there is a possibility of the condition being fulfilled in if 2 one is just imagining what would happen if the impossible came true.

In if 2 the condition cannot be fulfilled at all it is just day dreaming

Example

1. If I were you, I wouldn't eat posho. (It is impossible for one to turn into someone else)
2. If I were God, I would leave man to live forever. (it is impossible for me to become God)

Guidelines on the use of if 2

We use the past simple tense in if clause and a would + a verb in the present tense in the main clause Example

If I were a king, I would not look poor.

We often use 'were' instead of 'was' in order to put emphasis on the nature of the impossibility Example

If he were a snake, he would bite all sinners.

While in the affirmative it remains ....as.....as.....
