SSENYONGA'S SECOND HAND VEHICLE

Ssenyonga was overjoyed when he bought a car. Although it was old, he liked it very much. He knew that there were a number of good mechanics around who could help him repair his car in case it broke down.

One day, Ssenyonga wanted to travel to his home area, Kabwohe. Kabwohe village is about twenty kilometers away from Mbarara town. He did not want to travel alone. He asked his friend, Wandera, to accompany him. Ssenyonga started the car engine and they drove off. The car picked speed and Ssenyonga got excited.

He drove faster and faster. He started overtaking other cars. Wandera got worried and reminded Ssenyonga about the dangers of driving at such a high speed. "You should not drive so fast, it is not safe with an old car like this," said Wandera.

Ssenyonga did not pay attention, he instead answered, "This is not my first time to drive. May be it is your first time to travel by car."

No sooner had Ssenyonga said this than they started hearing a funny noise from the engine. The car certainly had had a mechanical problem Wandera looked at his friend and said, "You didn't pay attention to my advice. You see what I told you." Luckily, a breakdown vehicle came from the opposite direction. The driver of the breakdown got out and asked, "What happened to your car?" Ssenyonga answered, "First, there was a funny noise then the engine just stopped. I do not know what the matter is." The breakdown towed Ssenyonga's car to the nearby garage. Yet we were trained to gather information.

We have been sometimes praised,
For educating the masses
