

English Language

Senior three

Holiday work

March 2020 to April 2020

Rewrite the following sentences as instructed.

1. My aunt is very ill. She cannot be allowed to go home. (Join into one sentence using: ... too...)
2. "That fruit is mine," said John, "and I will be glad if you return it at once." (Re-write using reported speech)
3. They told us to stop singing. They would not let us paly the tape-recorder. (Join the two sentences using neither)
4. As they were moving along the main road, a signpost near the hospital showed that there was a bridge ahead. (Begin: Moving...)
5. He gave his son an allowance because he wanted the boy to learn how to handle money sensibly. (Re-write the sentence using...in order to...)
6. The thief failed to know that it was all a trick. He was not wise. (Begin: Not being...)
7. He was very strong. Consequently, it was easy for him to lift the weight. (Join into one sentence using enough)
8. The foreman did not appreciate how often he had used his tractor until it broke down. (begin: It was not...)
9. The moment the clock struck midnight; all lights went off. (Re-write using no sooner)
10. Because he insulted the jury, he was given a heavier sentence. (Re-write beginning: If only...)
11. Jeremiah loves Prisca. Prisca also loves Jeremiah. (Join into one sentence using ...as much as...)
12. "What! Are you going to leave me alone?" she said. (Re-write using indirect speech)
13. When Buyi entered the mosque, the lights went off. (Begin: Scarcely...)
14. Although the master on duty tried to stop them. The students refused to obey. (Re-write beginning: No matter...)
15. The school master was leaving the village and everybody seemed sorry. (Re-write using ...when...)
16. Come early or you will not be able to get a ticket. (Re-write using: Unless...)
17. The song may sound funny to the people who understand the language but not to the local gathering. (Re-write using.....bound...)
18. The crowded ferry sank too quickly for anybody who could not swim to be rescued. (Re-write using: "so...that...")
19. He grew angrier. His friends laughed even more loudly. (Begin: The...)
20. The food was very hot. We could not eat it. (Re-write using: ...too...to...)

21. Mt. Kilimanjaro is not as high as Mt. Everest. (Re-write using: ...than...)
22. He said to me, "Where do you live?" (Begin: He asked...)
23. We do not know the man. We gave their letters to him. (Join using...whom...)
24. They would rather join any other school than repeat the class. (Begin: They would prefer...)
25. Mary's mother does not think it is good for young girls to wear make-up. (Re-write using: ...approve...)
26. Is it really necessary for you to bring all that baggage? (Begin: Do you...)
27. Although the situation was serious, we did not give up hope. (Begin: Serious...)
28. Could you give me some information please? (Use: I wonder...)
29. They achieved the stated goals. This was due to the director's guidance. (Re-write using: ...if it were not...)
30. That was the worst storm they had ever seen. (Begin: Never...)